If the Council determines that the request for investigation is sufficiently credible on its face and that the alleged misconduct warrants prompt action, the Tribal Council may immediately file a complaint with the Tribal Appellate Court along

Such order may dismiss the application, grant the relief requested, order a hearing on the application, or issue any other writ or order deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

1.514.6 Notice of Appeal. An appeal shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal with the Court Clerk within 21 days of the date of the final judgment or order of the Community Court, unless otherwise provided by tribal law. In no case shall the bail exceed four times the maximum cash penalty for each offense for which the defendant has been charged.
- 1.905 DISCHARGE OF DEFENDANT; BAIL FURNISHED; ORDER. Upon good cause shown, the Court may reduce the bail originally set.
- 1.907 FORFEITURE OF BAIL. If the defendant fails to appear for trial or when his personal appearance in Court is lawfully required, the Court may direct an entry of such failure to be made in the record, and the surety bond, or the money deposited instead of bond, may be forfeited without further proceedings, and the Court may thereafter issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant.

- 1.1107 MOTION FOR A CHANGE OF JUDGE PROCEDURE. If the defendant shall make affidavit of prejudice, that he cannot have an impartial trial by reason of the bias of prejudice of the presiding Judge of the Court, the Judge may call some other Judge of the Court to preside at said trial. It shall be the duty of such other Judge to preside at said trial and do any other act with reference thereto as though he were the Judge before whom the action was originally brought. If the Judge honors the affidavit of prejudice, the defendant shall be entitled to such change of Judge at once.
- 1.1108 MOTION TO SUPPRESS EVIDENCE. A defendant has the right to file with the Court a motion to suppress evidence which he contends has been obtained from him in an unlawful manner. The summons must contain the reason for summoning the person and the number of days the person will be required to be present. No continuances of the trials shall be granted except upon good cause shown in open court, upon reasonable notice, that the ends of justice require a continuance. The defendant shall be entitled to a reasonable continuance, but such continuance shall not exceed thirty (30) days, unless for good cause. criminal cases shall be given precedence over civil cases.
- 1.1209 DEATH; ILLNESS; SUBSTITUTION; AUTHORITY OF SUBSTITUTE JUDGE. If, after the commencement of the trial of a criminal action or proceedings, the Judge presiding at such trial shall dies, become ill, or for any other reason be unable to proceed with the trial, any other Judge of the Court may proceed with and finish the trial. If there be no other Judge of that court available, then the clerk of that court shall adjourn the court until such time as a Judge shall be appointed in conformity with the provisions of this code and such Judge shall arrive to complete said trial. The Judge authorized by the provision of this section to proceed with and complete the trial shall have the same power, authority and jurisdiction as if the trial had been commenced before such Judge.

Chapter 1.13

FORMATION OF THE JURY

- 1.1301 FORMATION OF TRIAL JURY. Trial juries for all criminal actions are formed in the same manner as trial juries in civil actions.
- 1.1302 JURY DISMISSED; MATTER OF LAW. It shall be discretionary with the Court as to whether the jury impaneled for trial prior to postponement pursuant to Section 1.1209 shall remain seated or a new jury seated in its stead.

- 1.1304 PANEL DEFINED. A panel is a list of jurors returned by the board of jury selectors.
- 1.1305 CHALLENGE TO PANEL DEFINED; WHO MAY CHALLENGE; REASON FOR CHALLENGE. A challenge to the panel is an objection in writing made to all the jurors returned, and may be taken by either party. The panel may be challenged when any of the following appear:

 - (c) There was an omission to summon one or more of the jurors drawn.
- 1.1306 CHALLENGES TO INDIVIDUAL JURORS. A challenge to an individual juror is an objection which may be taken orally, and is either for cause or peremptory.
- 1.1307 ORDER FOR EXERCISING CHALLENGES FOR CAUSE; PEREMPTORY AND TIME. All challenges for cause must be taken first by the defendant and then by the Tribe. PEREMPTORY challenges may be taken by either party at any time during the seating of the jury and before the jury is sworn.
- 1.1308 CHALLENGE FOR CAUSE. A challenge for cause may be made by the Tribal Prosecutor or by the defendant, and must specify the facts constituting the causes thereof. It may be made for any of the following causes:
- (a) A previous conviction of a felony;

Failure to challenge for cause shall constitute a waiver of the basis for challenge.
- 1.1309 PEREMPTORY CHALLENGE; PARTIES WHO MAY TAKE; FORM, DEFINITION. A PEREMPTORY challenge can be taken by either party and may be oral. It is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the Court must exclude him.

1.1310 PEREMPTORY CHALLENGE; NUMBER; JOINT DEFENDANT. The defendant is entitled to two and the Tribe to two PEREMPTORY challenges. If two or more defendants are jointly tried for any public offense, the Tribe and the defendants shall be entitled to two PEREMPTORY challenges for each defendant.

Chapter 1.14

TRIAL PROCEDURE

- (a) The Judge shall read the complaint, and state the plea of the defendant to the jury.
- (b) Opening statements shall be given by the Prosecutor, followed by the defendant and his counsel.
- (c) The Prosecutor must open the case and offer evidence in support of the charge. The defendant or his counsel shall have the right to cross-examine any witness called to the stand by the Tribe.
- (d) The defendant or his counsel may then open the defense and offer evidence in support thereof. The Prosecutor shall have the right to cross-examine any witness called to the stand by the defendant or his counsel.
- (e) The parties may then respectively offer rebutting testimony only, unless the Court, in furtherance of justice, permits them to offer evidence upon their original case.
- (f) When the evidence is concluded the Tribe and the defendant or his counsel may argue the case to the court and jury, with the Prosecutor opening the argument and having the right to close.
- (g) Upon the conclusion of the arguments, the Court shall charge the jury orally or in writing, stating the law of the case. However, at the beginning of the trial or from time to time during the trial and without any request from either party, the Judge may give the jury such instructions on the law applicable to the case as he may deem necessary for their guidance on hearing the case.

1.1402 PRESUMPTION OF INNOCENCE; EFFECT; REASONABLE DOUBT; DEFENDANT'S REFUSAL TO TESTIFY. A defendant in a criminal action need not testify. He is presumed to be innocent until the contrary is proved. The effect of this presumption is to place upon the Tribe the burden of proving him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant's failure to testify on his own behalf shall in no way be construed against him nor commented upon by the prosecutor.

- 1.1403 JOINT DEFENDANTS TRIED JOINTLY; COURT MAY DIRECT SEPARATE TRIALS. When two or more defendants are jointly charged with a Tribal offense, they shall be prosecuted jointly, provided that the Court may, in its discretion, on application duly made prior to trial, direct that separate trials be had.
- 1.1404 VIEW OF PREMISES BY JURY. When the Court is of the opinion that it is proper for the jury to view the place in which the offense is charged to have been committed, or in which any other material fact occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body in the custody of proper officers to the place which shall be shown them by a person appointed by the Court for that purpose.
- 1.1405 DISCHARGE OF JUROR FOR ILLNESS OR DISABILITY; NEW TRIAL. If before the jury has returned its verdict into Court, a juror becomes sick, or upon other good cause shown to the Court is found to be unable to perform his duty, the Court may order him discharged. When a juror is discharged for any of the above reasons, the Court may, upon stipulation, proceed in the absence of said juror. In the absence of such stipulation, the jury shall be discharged and a new jury shall be impaneled to hear the case.
- 1.1406 LAW QUESTIONS FOR COURT AND FACT QUESTIONS FOR JURY. Questions of law are to be decided by the Court, questions of fact by the jury.
- 1.1407 INSTRUCTION TO JURY. At the close of evidence or at such time during the trial as the Judge directs, counsel for each party may file with the Judge written instructions on the law which the party requests the Judge to deliver to the jury. At the same time, copies of such requests shall be furnished to opposing counsel. The Judge shall inform counsel of his proposed action upon each request prior to the arguments to the jury, but the Judge shall deliver his instructions to the jury after arguments are completed. No party may assign as error any portion of the Judge's charge or omission therefrom unless he makes his objection before the jury retires to consider its verdict. Objections must be given out of the hearing of the jury.
- 1.1408 DECISION IN COURT; RETIREMENT. After hearing the charge, the jury shall retire for deliberation.
- 1.1409 POLL OF JURY BEFORE RECORDING VERDICT; EITHER PARTY AUTHORIZED; DISSENTING JUROR; FURTHER DELIBERATION; DISMISSAL OF JURY. When a verdict is rendered and before it is recorded, the jury may be polled on the request of either party or the Court, in which case each juror must be asked whether it is his verdict. If any juror answers in the negative, the jury must be sent out for further deliberation. If upon returning after further deliberation, the jury is polled again and a juror answers that the verdict is not his own, then the Judge shall dismiss the jury and a new trial will be ordered.
- 1.1410 DIRECTION OF VERDICT OF ACQUITTAL. At any time after the evidence on either side is closed, the Court may, upon motion of the defendant or upon its own motion, direct the jury to return a verdict of acquittal; and in the event of the failure of the jury to return such a verdict of acquittal, the Court may refuse to receive any other verdict and may discharge the jury and enter a judgment of acquittal. The denial of the motion shall be considered a final order of the Court for purposes of appeal.

Chapter 1.15

SUBMISSION TO THE JURY AND VERDICT

- 1.1501 PAPERS TAKEN BY JURY. Upon retiring for deliberation, the jury may take with it all instructions, exhibits, and papers which have been received in evidence. Also any notes of the testimony taken in the trial by the jurors may be taken.
- 1.1502 INFORMATION BY COURT ON POINTS OF LAW. After the jury has retired for deliberation, if there be any disagreement as to any part of the testimony or if it desires to be informed on any point of law arising in the case, it must require the officer to conduct it into court, and upon its being brought in, the information required may be given at the discretion of the Court.
- 1.1503 JURY KEPT TOGETHER. The jury shall be under the charge of the bailiff or other officer appointed by the Court. The jury must be kept together after the cause is submitted to them by the clerk of the court until they have agreed upon and rendered a verdict, unless, for good cause, the Judge sooner discharges them.
- 1.1504 VERDICT. The jury must render a general verdict of "guilty" or "not guilty", which imports a conviction or acquittal on every material allegation in the complaint. The verdict in all criminal actions must be unanimous.

JUDGMENT

- 1.1601 JUDGMENT OF CONVICTION; TIME FOR. Upon a plea of guilty or a verdict of guilty, the Court must fix a time for pronouncing judgment, which must be pronounced within a reasonable time after the verdict is rendered. Prior to pronouncing judgment the Court may make a pre-sentence investigation.
- 1.1602 EXECUTION OF JUDGMENT; IMPRISONMENT; FINE; RECORD. When judgment of imprisonment is entered, a signed copy thereof must be delivered to the police officer as defined in Section 1.102 of this code, or other officer which is a sufficient warrant for its execution. When a judgment is entered imposing a fine and ordering the defendant to be imprisoned until the fine and costs are paid, he must be held in custody during the time specified in the judgment in the discretion of the Court, unless the fine and costs are sooner paid. Upon payment of a fine by the defendant, the defendant shall be immediately set free unless detained for other legal cause.

- 1.1603 PRESENCE OF DEFENDANT. When judgment is pronounced the defendant must be personally present.
- 1.1604 INSANITY. If the Court is of the opinion that there is reasonable grounds for believing the defendant is insane or incompetent, the question of his sanity and commitment shall be determined as provided in Chapter 3.11 Title III of this code. The defendant may not be tried nor convicted of a crime, nor shall sentence be carried out if the defendant is declared insane during the proceedings or prior to execution of the sentence. Subject to the Statute of Limitations herein provided, an individual may again be made subject to criminal proceedings or shall be sentenced at such time as sanity is regained.
- 1.1605 IMPRISONMENT FOR FINE. A judgment that the defendant pay a fine, and costs may also direct that he be imprisoned until the fine and costs are satisfied, specifying the extent of the imprisonment, which shall not exceed one day for every five dollars of fine. Upon showing of indigence, a defendant may not be incarcerated solely because of his inability to pay the assessed fine but may, in the discretion of the Court, be given the choice of:
- (a) Release on probation, the terms of which shall include performing community services for the Tribe which are within his range of skills and at a wage rate commensurate with the services rendered until such time as the assessed fine and costs have been satisfied; or
 - (b) Release on probation, one of the terms of which shall include the payment, in regular installments within his means of the total fine and costs assessed. A defendant, indigent or not, may be incarcerated for his failure to comply with the Court's order to perform services as is specified in (a) above or his failure to comply with the terms of his probation with respect to timely payments as is set forth in (b) above.
- 1.1606 SUSPENSION OF SENTENCE. The Court may, on such terms and conditions as the Court may impose, suspend the sentence and release a convicted person on probation upon that person's signed pledge of good conduct for the duration of the sentence.
- 1.1607 COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE. If the Court is satisfied that justice will best be served by reducing a sentence, the Court may, at any time after one-half of a sentence has been served, commute to a lesser period any sentence imposed upon a person, upon proof that during the period of sentence the person served without misconduct.

Chapter 1.17

PROBATION

- 1.1701 CONDITION OF PROBATION. The Court may release on probation a convicted person on such terms and conditions as are just and appropriate, taking into consideration the prior criminal record of the defendant, his background, character, financial condition, family obligation, and any other pertinent circumstances.
- 1.1702 VIOLATION OF CONDITIONS OF PROBATION. Any person who violated the terms and conditions of his probation or suspension of sentence under Section 1.1606 shall be required to serve the original sentence.

Chapter 1.18

- 1.1802 GRANTING PAROLE. Parole may be granted by the Court upon such terms and conditions, including the requirement of personal reports from the parolee, as the Court may prescribe.
- 1.1803 VIOLATION OF PAROLE. Any paroled person who shall violate any provision of his parole, at the discretion of the Court, shall be apprehended and confined to serve the remainder of the original sentence with diminishment for the time the person was released on parole.

- 1.1902 APPLICATION. Application for a new trial may be made only by the defendant or his attorney and must be made before the completion of the sentence. Application must be made to the Court before which the case was tried.
- 1.1903 GROUND. The Court, on application from the defendant or on its own motion, may grant a new trial based on the following cause or causes:
- (a) When proper evidence has been presented that the jury has received any evidence, paper or document out of Court not authorized by the Court;
 - (b) When the verdict has been decided by lot or by means other than a fair expression of opinion on the part of all the jurors;
 - (c) When the Court has refused to instruct the jury properly as to the law;
 - (d) When for any other cause the defendant has not received a fair and impartial trial.
- 1.1904 EFFECT OF A NEW TRIAL. The granting of a new trial places the parties in the same position as if no trial has been held; all testimony must be reproduced and the former verdict cannot be used or referred to either in the evidence or in argument.
- 1.1905 STATUS OF THE ACCUSED PENDING NEW TRIAL. Pending a new trial the accused shall be entitled to bail the same as before trial.

1.1906 COURT COSTS IN CRIMINAL CASES. The judgment of conviction in criminal cases shall include costs of court, not to exceed five hundred ($500) dollars.

1.1907 DEFERRED PAYMENT OF FINE AND/OR COURT COSTS. Where fines and/or court costs are imposed in criminal cases, the Court may defer payment to a date agreed upon by the defendant on condition that the defendant also agrees that in case of non-payment by the agreed upon date, he or she will voluntarily go to jail and begin serving the sentence imposed.
