Primary Election determines which candidates advance to Nov. 7 General Election

PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT

On Tuesday, Oct. 10, the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe held the 2023 Primary Election. The Primary Election identified those candidates who will advance to the General Election scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 7.

The upcoming General Election will elect 12 candidates: Ten in District One, one in District Two and one in District Three, to the serve as representatives on the Tribal Council for a two-year term (2023-2025).

District One Tribal Members had the opportunity to select 20 candidates, from a list of 68, to move forward to the General Election.

There was not a Primary Election held in District Two or Three in accordance with Ordinance 4 - Section 13. The District Two incumbent candidate ran unopposed and will move forward to the General Election. District Three saw only two candidates and both candidates will be advancing to the General Election.

The SCIT Election Caucus Committee has reviewed and certified the results of the Primary Election for 2023.

The Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe is comprised of three districts that account for the total registered voting membership of 2,168. This accounts for 63.3 percent of the possible 3,424 members who had an ability to register to vote.

The District One voting district boundaries encompass all of Isabella County. There are a total of 1,137 registered voters. District One had 1,346 members who were eligible to register to cast a ballot. Voter participation in the 2023 District One Primary Election totaled 581 members and reflected a 51.10 percent turnout.

District Two voting boundaries are within the Saganing Reservation in Arenac County and has 40 registered voters. There are currently 50 members that were eligible to register to vote in District Two.

Finally, District Three, or the At-Large district, are those members who are reflective of the remaining

Cree Summer Glavas

April 9, 1990 – October 18, 2023

Cree Summer Glavas, 33, crossed over to paradise in the early evening of Oct. 18, 2023, at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit. Surrounded in passing by her parents, Tracy Mays and John Glavas, her heart's treasure and only child, Andrea Elena Hawkins and beloved baby sister, Seneca Mays-Glavas, with the close support of a few relatives and close friends.

Cree is survived by many family members. She leaves to mourn, her mom Tracy Mays; dad John Glavas; and her most beloved sister and closest friend, Seneca Mays-Glavas and her family, the young, Ariana Amor Garcia, and son, Emiliano Roman Garcia; and her paternal grandfather John James Glavas.

Other family members that she leaves to cherish her memory include John Mays, Judith Mays, Esther Helms, Ralph Mays, Sharon Cole, Cathy Floyd, Christa Hodge and Sophia Glavas.

Cree was preceded in death by family members, Esther Mays and Isiah "Bob" Mays, Evelyn Smalley, Linda Mays Lindsay and Marion Crawford.

Cree was born April 9, 1990, in Detroit. She was a Mt. Pleasant High School graduate and attended MJ Murphy Beauty college in Mt. Pleasant, studying cosmetology.

She was baptized in Christ by Pastor George B. Glass at her church home, Christian Chapel Church ("3C"), Southfield, Mich. Cree was a SCIT Tribal Member. She loved all things artistic; she loved music, drawing. Cree was a tribal advocate and donor of life.

In her quiet hours, Cree embarked on a self-satisfying artistic entrepreneurship. Having a penchant for creativity, she made exquisitely beautiful Native dreamcatchers with a successful online market startup. Her dreamcatchers exhibited her unique personal pizzazz and were a beautiful mix of her innate Detroit urban glam combined with her Saginaw/Chippewa "Rez" daringness and earthy Native spirit.

Cree always loved and was proud of all her ancestral roots-Chippewa, Black, and Greek from her Dad. All the cultures played nicely within her, contributing to her unique personality, charisma and spellbinding good looks. Behind the cool shades she often wore, were eyes that looked into your heart and spirit and beckoned you to come out and play. She had the innate ability and charm to woo one over to her side of the playing field for the sheer joy of the matter.

Cree wasn't afraid to go anywhere, help a friend in need, let her hair down or travel. She was a girl of true adventure looking for her heart's home. For such a young person, she was often welcomed to make her home in many places. She visited several cities and states and resided with whole families who welcomed her as a daughter, cousin or cherished friend wherever she went.

Her life was boundless and without restraint. She richly lived every moment of her life, and she did it courageously and limitlessly. Wherever she found herself, she got there with a loving heart and a fierce but gentle desire to laugh, smile and taste the thrill of life in all its various colors and appeal. She would have it no other way.

So, as we find ourselves today bidding the impossible-to this beautiful soul, Cree Summer (Mays) Glavas, let us savor what she meant to each one of us. Give thanks to Creator God, the Father of all, for her impactful life and spirit. Join her family in prayer and appreciation for this beautiful being who gave us the fullest of her measure. Even at the end of her earthly journey, Cree was an organ donor, still caring for others' lives, beyond her own and sometimes in spite of it.

Let us honor her memory with love for one another as Jesus' greatest commandment sweetly implored. "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind...love your neighbor as yourself."-Matthew 22:36

Funeral services took place at Clark Family Funeral Chapel on Friday, Oct. 27, 2023, at 1 p.m. with Fred Cantu officiating. The family greeted friends that Friday beginning at 11 a.m. until the time of the service.

Memorial contributions may be made to the family.

The Seven Grandfather TEACHINGS

Nbookaawin – Wisdom
To live with wisdom is to acquire and use experiences as guides for making equitable and mature decisions.

Zaagidowin – Love
To live our lives with love is to understand our capacity to realize, empathize, and nurture the needs of others.

Minaadendamooing – Respect
To live with respect is to give mutual consideration for shared and differing ideas as well as for the world around us.

Zoongide'ewin – Bravery
To be brave and have courage is to recognize our moral and mental strength and to do what is appropriate.

Gwekwadiziwin – Honesty
To be honest is to recognize that we have the ability to live our lives with honor and integrity.

Dibaadendiziwin – Humility
To live with humility is to recognize that we are all equal, we all make mistakes, we all like to have our success rewarded and to put others before ourselves.

Debwewin – Truth
To live in truth is to recognize the difference between right and wrong and to be faithful to ourselves as well as the world around us even when the right way is not the easiest way.

Star Tree Program

Applications accepted: Nov. 1-17, 2023

Community members are invited to help make the upcoming holiday better for those less fortunate children by participating in the Star Tee Program to make a child's Christmas happier. Tis the Season for gift-giving!

How to Help

Select a Star from the ACFS Star Tree in the lobby of ACFS between Nov. 11 to Dec. 10, 2023

- The Star will contain a number (ex: G2- for a girl or B7-for a boy) and age for a child.
- It will have a wish list provided by the child with clothing sizes and color preferences.

Purchase the gift(s) or substitutes listed on the Star

- Not all gift(s) need be purchased. The wish list is just a variety of preferences for gifts.

Wrap the gift(s) and bag/bundle the gift(s) together

- With the star attached to the outside of the bag/bundle.
- Please do not label the individual gift(s) with the number (ex. G2).

Return the gift(s) with the stars to ACFS

- Anytime between 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday - Friday.
- Gifts due back to ACFS by Monday, Dec. 18
- Gifts will be distributed between Dec. 19, 20 & 21
- Applicants must pick up gifts by Dec. 21 at 5 p.m.

Brent Cummings of Rockford High School named the Detroit Lions High School Football Coach of the Week

(Editor's note: The following article comes from detroitlions.com and recognizes SCIT Tribal Member Brent Cummings as the week four recipient of the 2023 High School Football Coach of the Week Program by the Detroit Lions.)

DETROIT (Sept. 19, 2023) — The Detroit Lions have named Brent Cummings of Rockford High School the week four recipient of the 2023 High School Football Coach of the Week Program.

Cummings' Rams defeated previously undefeated Ottawa-Kent Conference Red Division rival Caledonia 42-16 to move to 4-0 on the season. Rockford is currently ranked No. 2 in Division 1. On Friday, Sept. 22, the Rams host the 1-3 Holland West Ottawa Panthers in the 58th matchup all-time between these two programs.

Cummings is in his fourth season as head coach at Rockford, compiling a 33-3 record (91.7 percent) after serving 12 years as an assistant coach under long-time Rockford head coach Ralph Munger, a 2005 Detroit Lions High School Football Coach of the Week recipient.

The Rams have won three straight OK Red Conference titles while winning 26 straight regular season games under Cummings.

Cummings is also the strength and conditioning coordinator at Rockford High School. He was an all-state running back at Belding High School and played football at the University of Michigan.

Detroit Lions Football Education sat down with Cummings to talk about the big win over Caledonia, the quality high school football being played in West Michigan, the ability to create positive experiences around the game for all involved from youth to high school and how his role as the strength and conditioning coach assists the Rockford student-athletes.

Cummings was also informed of his Coach of the Week selection on Head Coach Hangout. See his reaction and the entire interview by visiting www.DetroitLions.com/coachoftheweek.

program. At the conclusion of the 2023 Michigan High School Football season, the Lions will also select the High School Football Coach of the Year.

This season's Coach of the Year will receive a $3,000 donation to his school's football program. All winners will receive a certificate signed by Lions' head coach Dan Campbell and NFL commissioner Roger Goodell.

Currently in its 27th year, the Detroit Lions High School Coach of the Week program has awarded $491,000 to high school football programs throughout the state of Michigan.

High School Football Coach of the Week Program

Each week throughout the 2023 high school football regular season, one coach that best demonstrates success on and off the field, develops players' character, discipline, and football skill in addition to emphasizing player health and safety in their program, will be recognized for his commitment to the team, school, and community.

The winner is selected by a panel of high school football media members—Mick McCabe (Detroit Free Press), Hugh Bernreuter (Saginaw News), Bret Bakita (WOOD Radio-106.9 FM, 96.1 FM- The Game, Fox 17/Grand Rapids), James Cook (Traverse City Record-Eagle) and Scott DeCamp (CatchMark SportsNet).

This season's program will award $12,000 to aid in the development and promotion of high school football in the state of Michigan, thanks to contributions from the Detroit Lions and the NFL Foundation.

Each winning coach during the regular season will receive a $1,000 donation to his school's football

Indigenous Peoples' Day celebration features land acknowledgement marker presentation

JOSEPH V. SOWMICK
Public Relations Manager

More than 100 people traveled to Saginaw to participate in an Oct. 9 Indigenous Peoples' Day celebration that featured a land acknowledgement marker presentation.

District Three Tribal Councilman Frank Cloutier represented Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe's leadership at the Ojibway Island event and spoke about the importance of the recognition.

"Land acknowledgement is one of many ways our fellow Americans can acknowledge the true history of our people and the struggles our ancestors had to endure," Cloutier said. "Saginaw Valley State University and the City of Saginaw are keenly aware of that history today, but as many others they have much more to learn. It was a proud moment to be a part of the dedication and collaborative work involved to get to that point."

The City of Saginaw partnered with the Marshall M.

Fredericks Sculpture Museum to host a special unveiling of the new Native American Land Acknowledgement Marker.

Megan McAdow, executive director of the Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum, commented on the special celebration in collaboration with Indigenous Peoples' Day.

"We are working with wonderful team of community partners to plan such an amazing collection of cultural programming for the public to experience this fall. I am proud to see how far the Indigenous Peoples' Day celebration has come," McAdow said. "I love seeing this event grow, not only in collaboration with the City of Saginaw, but with interest from the community partners."

Saginaw Mayor Brenda Moore said the Saginaw City Council accepted the donation of the land acknowledgement marker from Saginaw Valley State University, in collaboration with the Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum, on June 5, 2023.

The marker can be found at the north end of Ojibway

Island and maintained by the City of Saginaw.

"We are pleased to accept this donation and partner with SVSU and the Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum to place this marker on Ojibway," Moore said. "The ultimate goal of this project is to educate park visitors of all ages and honor the Native American inhabitants who first populated this region. The marker is a beautiful piece of art that provides a fascinating history of the Anishinaabe Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe and its culture. I encourage our residents to come to Ojibway Island and see a part of Saginaw's rich history."

Moore was joined by SVSU President George Grant Jr. and Saginaw-based Hoyt Library Head Stephanie Reinhardt as invited dignitaries who joined Cloutier.

Along with the land acknowledgement, the Ziibiwing Center of Anishinaabe Culture and Lifeways offered a dance presentation with traditional dancer Ray Cadotte, and women's traditional dancers Judy Pamp and Summer Stevens.

As a district one candidate I will represent each one of you faithfully and with your best interest at heart. I have no personal agenda but to create opportunities for our Tribal Members through development of our portfolio and diversification of our business. As our current economic environment as a Nation as a whole, it is that much more important to protect our Sovereignty through the securing of our Tribal Treaties. I will work with our programs and our members to secure our future through our treaties that we as a Nation can provide for our Tribal Community. I ask for your support in this upcoming election to protect your future.

Courtney Kahgegab

Boozhu, my name is Courtney Kahgegab and I am from the Bear Clan. I am a fourth generation Tribal Member from when our Tribe organized and adopted our Tribe's first Constitution in 1937. So I am invested in my time here within our Tribe and all of its endeavors that will impact our future generations, our kids, our grandchildren and great-grandchildren and so forth. Some topics that I take issue with and would like to follow up and see what kind of solutions there are; to bring Tribal Members employment up at the Casino, addressing the toxicity there. Bringing back that top level hospitality back to the casino, because as Anishnaabe we are a hospitable people and that is one of the main reason people loved the SECR. And our Tribe needs to be decolonized, we are the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan and that means something! Mi'iw

Sheila Leareaux

Hello, my name is Sheila Leareaux. I believe a new direction is needed; we need to get out of our comfort zone in order for us to be successful. I would like to see more transparency between Tribal Council and the membership. The membership needs to be updated with current situations involving the tribe. I also believe the Youth should be a top priority, they are our future and we need strong leaders to continue to take the tribe in the right direction.

Stacy Mandoka

Aanii, my name is Stacy Mandoka. I have been a loyal employee for the Saginaw Chippewa Indian tribe for 20+ years in various positions such as Employment coordinator, Recruiter, Anishinabe Workforce Developer, Generalist, Interim Benefits Manager and currently Interim HR Manager. I have an associate's degree in Business Administration and in Liberal Arts from the Tribal College. I have a very solid work ethic and have established strong working relationships with SECR and Tribal government employees and management. I value the dedication and loyalty they display day after day. Miigwetch for the support in last month's election. I humbly ask for your continued support in making the future of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe the best that it can be for our membership and our future generations.

David Merrill Jr.

Boozho Indawaymanadakok, I would like to thank the Tribal Membership for allowing me to learn, represent, and serve our Tribal Nation as your Tribal Council Member / Sgt at Arms. This is a responsibility I do not take lightly. I am excited at the possibility of serving you again as your elected leader. Together, we can foster a culture of transparency within the Tribal Council, promote open communication, accountability, foster unity, and prioritize the health and wellness of all our tribal members, and be the place to raise our families. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns please feel free to contact me at 989-775-4006 or email at dmerrill@sagchip.org I understand nothing guaranteed with elections, so I humbly ask for your support and vote. Miigwetch for considering me once again during the General Election. Get out and vote for your future. Respectfully, DEMJ

Christina Otto

Chi Miigwetch for your continued support as I campaign for Tribal Council! I'm grateful and excited for the opportunity to represent our people. Walking the Red Road for almost two decades has given me first hand familiarity of our Tribes resources. This journey has equipped me with the skill set to continue to grow mentally, emotionally, physically, and spiritually. My thirst for knowledge will ensure that I learn quickly what it means to serve in leadership. I will continue to advocate for wellness surrounding mental health and substance misuse. Serving on the SCTC Board of Regents and as Treasurer, Secretary, and Outreach Chair on an Advisory Committee will assist in my efforts as a council member. Once again, I'm committed to working collaboratively with all of our departments and partner organizations to uplift, sustain, and expand all of what we as a Tribe offer, to best suit our unique needs.

Summer Peters

Boozhoo! Armed with 25 years of tribal gaming experience, I remain focused on our gaming operations and the success of our business endeavors. I am concerned about the lack of supply of affordable housing for tribal members. I will bring fair and impartial leadership should I be elected to Tribal Council. Please feel free to contact me to talk more about your concerns and thoughts: summer@summeryahbay.com

Mary Quigno

I'd like to thank you all for your support in the primary election. I have over 18 years of service with the Tribe where I have dedicated most of my career to the Human Resources Department. While working I was able to earn an Associate's degree in Business from the Tribal College and started working towards a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from CMU. I'm a member of the National Native American Human Resources Association and obtained my Tribal Human Resources Professional certification. My education and experience helped prepare me to serve on Tribal Council. I've been able to offer guidance on many issues within the organization while remaining fair and consistent for all. I currently serve on the Anishinabe Language Revitalization Committee; I'm committed to seeing language revitalization in our community to protect our sovereignty. I would like to see our Tribe diversify for future growth. Thank you!

Diana Quigno-Grundahl

Boozhoo Aanii fellow Tribal Members. My name is Diana Quigno-Grundahl. I am a God fearing woman, my faith is my moral compass. I have served our tribe and tribal membership for over 30 years. I am deeply dedicated to our tribe and look forward to bringing this experience to work for the future of our community. My reason for running for tribal council is simple; I seek to further the interest of our tribe and the membership as a whole. My agenda is guided by my faith and a deep desire to build a great tribal community, organization, and future for the next generations. My commitment to you is firm and straightforward. I will always look out for the best interest of our tribe and our tribal community. I am deeply grateful for your support over the years and hope to continue to serve you moving forward.

Alice Jo Ricketts

Chii Miigwetch to all my fellow Tribal Members for allowing me to serve you the past 4 years as the Council Chaplain. I say with great honor and respect that I Love you all and I appreciate the trust you have placed in me to be a leader within our community. We have taken an unpredictable journey the past four years but God has been very faithful to say the least. I would be so honored if you endorse me to continue this journey with you for the next two years. I truly appreciate you all and continue to pray favor and blessings for our tribe. Gratefully yours, Alice Jo Ricketts

District 1: Isabella

Gayle Ruhl

I knew from my mid-teens that I would move to the rez to raise a family and get a job. I did this after my BS degree, and worked at BH while getting my MSW. I've fallen in love being around tribal members, and working here for 20+ years. Seeing youth grow up connected to a rich tribal nation is beautiful. I want to help the casino increase revenues and see our Tribal government provide the services our members need. I believe in continued growth on all levels. I don't want to divide our community but instead work together. I've always had our tribe, the constitution, and our membership's wellbeing on my mind. While working in three different programs with eight small and large budgets, I have a lot of experience with policies, operations and implementing programs. I'm committed to this tribe and humbly ask for your vote. ger

Maia Spotted Tail (Montoya-Pego)

Boozhu friends and relatives! My name is Maia Spotted Tail, I would like to share a little more about myself in addition to my professional qualifications shared in October's Tribal Observer. I am the mother to three beautiful children; my children motivate me to try my best at everything I do. I enjoy working out, golfing, reading, running, watching Jeopardy, Mexican food, and traveling to pow-wows to dance the jingle dress style. Physical activity is important to me and helps maintain Anishnaabe mino-bimaadiziwin. Outside of lending my accounting education and experience to informed decision making, there are other challenges that need attention; mental health issues, dealing with trauma, losing our young people at an alarming rate, loss of cultural teachings and identity, elder and youth advocacy, housing shortages, just to name a few. I would be grateful to be given an opportunity to make positive changes for us all, miigwetch!

Lucas Sprague

I am a proud Alumni of the Saginaw Chippewa Tribal College and CMU; I received my bachelor's degree in the summer of 2020 and earned my Master of Science in Administration in 2023. I have been working for the Tribe for 12 and a half years, eight of those years have been in a management capacity. I am a strong advocate for education, with a primary focus on supporting the assets and resources necessary for our tribal community to achieve their goals. The 2021-2023 term has been a humbling and enlightening experience in many ways, and I have learned that strong leadership and communication skills are required for the position. I prioritize community engagement in an effort to unify the membership and encourage coming together as a whole. In observing newer employee's they have demonstrated great potential that has reassured me that the future of the tribe is in good hands.

Jennifer (Vasquez) Wassegijig

It has been an honor to serve our community. Tribal Council remains committed to putting the safety and well-being of our SCIT Members, associates and entire community first. I believe, I've done my best to benefit our tribe as a whole. I enjoy attending and supporting community events especially related to recovery. I will always be there to encourage them to walk the red road. If re-elected, I look forward once again, to being a voice for the membership. Thank you for your continued support.

Martha Wemigwans

Aanii my fellow Tribal Members! First and foremost, I would like to thank each and every one of you for allowing me to serve as your Tribal Council Secretary. As a Tribe we must focus more on our Youth as they are our future and Elders who paved the road for us to have what we have today. To ensure our future we need to prioritize increasing gaming profits (and responsible spending), along with maintaining our sovereignty, proper health care & insurance, continued Member services, education, treaty rights (and environmental protections), and local and national relations. I will continue to use my voice and make the best decisions possible for our Tribe as whole. Much love and respect to all. Miigwetch

District 2: Saganing

Ronald Nelson

Boozhoo, My focus will always be for the Saganing Reservation that I came from, together we are stronger as one people working together for the good of all as a blessed Tribe. We always have to stay humble to the creator, those we serve as Mother Earth has gifted us with the lives we have been given. Positivity will heal all with an open mind. Our future will be strong with an economic map to foresee the obstacles that slow us from growing for a brighter future. A vision we must always have. Judgement, Negativity will harm us as natives our people's pride must lead us. I Thank my ancestors that have passed on without them we would not have what we have today. I also Thank all my relatives who have had faith in me to serve. My heart beats for the good of our people. Chi-Miigwetch

District 3: At Large

Frank Cloutier

With 23 years of service within the Tribe, I possess institutional knowledge of ordinances, policies and resolutions. Previous leadership experience provides consistent efforts. The At-Large district is an important part of our Tribal community. I have worked with leadership to bring equality and mutual benefit to our district. The Mno Shkiziwin (GWE) Act is a good example of those efforts. To turn our Per-Capita income into "Tax Free" expense money will relieve the income tax pressure for many families. I am also working with our team to include as many At-Large members as possible into the Tribal Tax agreement that would allow for tax free income/sales tax exemptions. It is less important who we vote for; however it is more essential that we as District Three members vote and have our voices heard. I am humbly asking for your support and your vote this November.

Paul Walker

Aanii, my name is Paul Walker, and I am running for District 3 representative, I currently live in Freeland MI and have over 26 years' experience with the tribe in various positions including Tribal Ops Director of Facilities. I have been involved in many committees i.e. Dress Code Policy, Evaluation Committee, MIIBS Committee, and formed the Emergency Planning Committee, which allows the tribe to apply for Federal Aide in the event of a disaster. During my tenure I have tried to keep the best interests of the tribe first and foremost, and having worked for both Casinos and Tribal Ops I have experience of how our organizations operate. I am looking for ways to cut wasteful spending, keep tribal member employee retention, providing for our elders and vets, and push for our treaty hunting and gathering rights. Miigwetch and thank you for considering me to be your District 3 representative.

SCIT leadership joins Mt. Pleasant City Commission in recognizing Indigenous Peoples' Day

JOSEPH V. SOWMICK

Public Relations Manager

On Oct. 9, SCIT leadership joined the Mt. Pleasant City Commission in their chambers as they came together to recognize Indigenous Peoples' Day.

Chief Theresa Peters-Jackson was joined by Sub-Chief Jennifer Wassegijig and Tribal Council Treasurer Gayle Ruhl.

Public Relations Director Erik Rodriguez introduced the Onion Creek Singers who provided an honor song as City of Mt. Pleasant Mayor Amy Perschbacher highlighted the Indigenous Peoples' Day proclamation for those in attendance in person and on the webstream.

Chief Peters-Jackson said the City has proclaimed and recognized Indigenous Peoples' Day every year since 2014 and recognizes the value of working collaboratively together.

"We appreciate the support shown by the Mt. Pleasant

City Commission regarding the Indigenous Peoples' Day proclamation and making it an every year remembrance," Peters-Jackson said. "If it affects Native families in our community, many of the issues we face do affect others. It is encouraging to see the City Commission and our Tribal Council walking together toward building a healthy community and to give support toward issues that impact all of us."

Mayor Perschbacher remarked Indigenous Peoples' Day is an "opportunity to educate about pre-existing Indian cultures that have survived an often-violent colonization process and continue to exist and thrive in present day America."

"In 2010, the State of Michigan, the County of Isabella and the City of Mt. Pleasant recognized the official boundaries of the Isabella Indian Reservation through a historic set of agreements," Perschbacher said. "These historic agreements amicably settled long-standing Indian Country jurisdictional issues and are now considered model agreements. The City of Mt. Pleasant desires to demonstrate and celebrate its strong and productive relationship with the Saginaw Chippewa Tribal Council based on mutual respect and trust."

Mid Michigan College hosts "Indigenous Peoples' Day 2023" on Oct. 9

MATTHEW WRIGHT

Staff Writer

On Oct. 9, Mid Michigan College hosted "Indigenous Peoples' Day 2023" inside the community room of the Mount Pleasant campus.

The event was possible through a partnership between Mid Michigan College with the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe, Central Michigan University, Ziiibiwing Center of Anishinabe Culture & Lifeways and 7th Generation. The event focused on Cultures, Contributions, & Resilience: Indigenous Peoples Day honors the past, present, and futures of Native peoples and celebrates the cultural contributions of Native peoples.

Chief Theresa Peters-Jackson offered an opening prayer and also introduced fellow Council members in attendance (Sub-Chief Jennifer Wassegijig, David Merrill Jr. and Luke Sprague).

Both Peters-Jackson and Sprague provided opening remarks.

Onion Creek Singers provided a welcome song, with Merrill dancing in full regalia.

Mid Michigan College President Tim Hood shared sentiments on the growth of the event, as well as the importance it deserves.

"I've been at this event each year since I've been president of this college, and I see a lot of familiar faces. I'm glad to see you back," Hood said. "Doesn't the room seem to get fuller each year? The word is spreading, that this is well worth the time. What we're seeing, hearing and learning here with these events and more like them that we want to be part of, is how much we need to know, and need to respect and understand about diversity. About the land that we share, and what brings all the good things that we enjoy in Michigan to pass."

Michigan Lt. Gov. Garlin Gilchrist II provided a welcoming statement.

"It is really a privilege to be here to recognize and celebrate Indigenous Peoples' Day," Gilchrist said. "I want to thank all of you for taking the time to recognize and frankly, celebrate. What we are blessed to have here in Michigan is a collection of cultures that are willing to collaborate, because we recognize that we are connected and we share both our struggles and our opportunities."

Michigan Sen. Roger Hauck expressed an appreciation to the Tribe and its effects on the community.

"I've had the privilege of representing the Tribe for the last seven years. I've seen the amazing and incredible contributions that the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe has brought to our community," Hauck said. "They also help make it a special community, from their vibrant culture to collaborative efforts with Mid Michigan College and Central Michigan University. The Tribe has been a beacon of unity and strength. Their resilience and spirit have not only enriched the local culture, they have also set remarkable examples for all of us to follow."

Central Michigan University President Robert O. Davies and Mt. Pleasant Mayor Amy Perschbacher also shared welcoming comments.

Ziibiwing Center hosts annual Eagle Feather Cleansing, Honoring and Feast

JOSEPH V. SOWMICK

Public Relations Manager

On Oct. 19-20, the Ziibiwing Center hosted its annual Eagle Feather Cleansing, Honoring and Feast event. Veterans came together with traditional indigenous knowledge keepers and community members to cleanse the eagle feathers in a good way.

William Johnson, curator, said the Ziibiwing Center has been cleansing, honoring and feasting the eagle fathers in the permanent collection for more than 20 years.

“This spiritual care has been at the direction of our Tribal elders,” Johnson said.

“We take great pride in the preservation of these sacred and ceremonial objects for the future generations. The Anishinaabe Ogitchedaw Veteran and Warrior Society has been assisting all these years and we are indebted to them for their respect of our culture. It gives me great pleasure knowing that the Tribal community is able to clean, honor and feast their personal eagle feathers as well.”

Johnson said the Ziibiwing Center has been an inspiration for other tribes looking to start a similar cultural and educational program.

Andahwod Monster Bash costume party offers a scary good time

JOSEPH V. SOWMICK

Public Relations Manager

More than 75 participants joined with the Andahwod residents and staff in costume as they enjoyed scary good times at the Oct. 13 Monster Bash.

Sheligh Jackson, interim senior assisted living administrator, said the residents enjoy other community members coming to events and activities.

“It gives (the residents) a chance to socialize out of their usual routine,” Jackson said. “The staff worked hard to make the building look great and created delicious dishes for the bash. We hope to make this an annual event and look forward to seeing more community members at future events.”

Many of the residents and staff jumped at the chance to recreate the Wizard of Oz theme as follows:

Dorothy (Cynthia Floyd), Toto (Floyd’s dog, Scruffy), Tin Man (Dorothy Netmop), Scarecrow (Sharon Sasse), Cowardly Lion (Jim Bob Falcon), Flying Monkey (Kermit), Good Witch (Carole Hill), Lollipop Guild (Tim and Carole) and Bad Witches (Andahwod staff).

The event was held on Friday the 13th but event coordinators Denise Pelcher and Patty Kequom knew there were no superstitions about anyone not having a good time.

“We at Andahwod would like to thank everyone who attended and helped make the 2023 Monster Bash a memorable experience for the elders,” Pelcher said. “The residents are still talking about it. Many people have said how nice the Halloween party was and how much fun they had being able to act like a kid again and get dressed up...”

Indigenous Peoples' Day Fashion Show held at Ziibiwing on Oct. 9

MATTHEW WRIGHT

Staff Writer

The Ziibiwing Center hosted an Indigenous Peoples' Day Fashion Show on Monday, Oct. 9.

Volunteers showcased the fashion of Jillian Waterman, an Anishinaabe cultural bearer, philosopher, artist and fashion designer. A Saginaw Chippewa Tribal Member, her work ranges from canoes, wigwams, baskets, dishes and fashion items.

Waterman's fashion pieces have been featured on runways from New York City to Santa Fe, N.M. and Detroit.

Waterman's website savage-birch.com states, "Consumed by her curiosity, culture, humanity and senses, she has always driven to seek as much traditional Indigenous knowledge as she could. Over the past decade she has focused her efforts on the role revitalization of traditional knowledge in healing and strengthening indigenous communities within the Great Lakes region."

Two legends – Patti LaBelle and Gladys Knight – showcase powerhouse vocals during show

NATALIE SHATTUCK

Editor

Two legendary powerhouse vocalists – Patti LaBelle and Gladys Knight – showcased jaw-dropping performances on Friday, Oct. 13 at the Soaring Eagle Casino & Resort.

The “Empress of Soul” and seven-time Grammy Award-winner Gladys Knight opened the show just after 8 p.m. with a 75-minute performance.

Sporting a classy yellow pant suit and her signature smile, Knight and her band were ready to get the party started. The band began the show with “Taste of Bitter Love,” “Every Beat of My Heart,” “Love Overboard” and “Best Thing That Ever Happened To Me,” in which she kept repeating to the audience, “I love all of ya’ll” in between the verses.

During “If I Were Your Woman,” she received roses from a fan in the audience.

“Music has a dear place in my heart and any time I’m able to be in the presence of all of you, and I thank you all for showing up,” Knight said to the audience.

Knight and her band continued with “On and On,” “I’ve Got To Use My Imagination,” “Save the Overtime (For Me)” and “I Heard It Through the Grapevine.”

“I’m supposed to be working;

The “Godmother of Soul” Patti LaBelle belts out a hit song during the Friday, Oct. 13 Soaring Eagle Casino & Resort concert.

“I’m having too much fun,” Knight said mid song.

The audience gave Knight a standing ovation for her performance of the classic “Neither One of Us (Wants to Be the First to Say Goodbye).” Her skillful belting-it-out vocals and her impressive control was especially displayed during the Barbra Streisand cover, “The Way We Were.”

As a two-time Grammy winner in the gospel category, Knight and her talented backing vocalists performed an impressive segment of gospel songs, including Donnie McClurkin’s “Stand” and Tamela Mann’s

“Take Me to the King.”

Knight concluded her memorable portion of the show with the hit song “Midnight Train to Georgia.”

The 79-year-old legend and “Godmother of Soul” Patti LaBelle also performed a 75-minute show, which went on well past 11 p.m. Also known for her “glitz and glam” fashion and iconic long nails, LaBelle walked on stage sporting a silk skirt and long-sleeved lengthy shirt that formed a train behind her.

LaBelle’s performance highlighted her brassy vocals and the mighty power that comes along with those chops.

When performing “If You Asked Me To,” LaBelle said, “Celine Dion did this song, but don’t it twisted; I did it first.”

During “New Attitude,” LaBelle tossed long-stemmed roses to audience members.

LaBelle was quick to mention she is “79 years young.” “Some people say they’re afraid of their age; don’t be afraid of graduating,” she said.

LaBelle performed an impressive cover of “Tennessee Whiskey,” with a mix of belting and hitting those high notes in her head voice.

Her performance of “On My Own” ended on a high note, and “When You Talk About Love” had the horns section walking front and center on the stage into the spotlight.

“I’ll never wear this train again,” LaBelle said rolling her eyes, as she made a gesture that implied it was difficult to walk in. Prior to Set Two, LaBelle left the stage as her band played tunes on stage. LaBelle changed into a white pant suit with a silk shirt.

A gospel medley included the male back-up vocalist performing CeCe Winans’ “Goodness of God,” and LaBelle performed Kirk Franklin’s “Something About the Name Jesus” and “God is a Good God, (Yes, He Is).”

LaBelle changed into a red dress and brought a few men on stage to help her sing the hit “Lady Marmalade.” LaBelle ended her extraordinary show with Donna Summer’s “Bad Girls.”

Foreigner hits abound during “Farewell Tour” at the Soaring Eagle

MATTHEW WRIGHT

Staff Writer

The Soaring Eagle Casino & Resort welcomed classic rock ‘n’ roll band Foreigner on Saturday, Oct. 21. The sold-out show was the latest stop in their “Farewell Tour.”

Since their inception in 1976, the British-American rock band has gone on to sell more than 80 million records. Their discography includes nine top 10 singles on the Billboard Hot 100.

Foreigner took the audience on a journey that night, spanning more than four decades of greatest hits.

This began with a trio of classics in “Double Vision,” “Head Games” and “Cold as Ice.”

Next up was the power ballad “Waiting for a Girl Like You” followed by “Blue Morning, Blue Day” and “Dirty White Boy.”

The energy picked up as the audience chanted the lyrics along to the anthemic vibes of “Feels Like the First Time.”

This was followed by the funky, strutting beats of “Urgent.”

After a keyboard and drum solo, the band transitioned into the melodic rock hit “Juke Box Hero.”

A three-piece encore began with “Long, Long Way From Home,” followed by the dreamy, hypnotic No. 1 hit single, “I Want to Know What Love Is.”

Foreigner closed out the night with the hot and heavy, innuendo-filled hit “Hot Blooded.”

New SCIT Tribal Member career soaring program

HUMAN RESOURCES

Is it time for a change in your career path, are you looking to enter the workforce or make a move within the organization?

What sparks your interests these days, what kind of work truly inspires you? Do you know what kind of work you are seeking, do you know what the jobs qualifications are, do you meet the minimums or do you need assistance meeting the job requirements?

Would you like support in your job searching process? Do you have a current resume, do you need interview preparation? Would you like assistance in your employability efforts?

Tribal Development Coordinator Betsey Alonzo has created a uniquely designed seven step career development process based off of the NCDA's official Career Planning Process, to assist SCIT Tribal Members in entering and succeeding in the Tribal workforce.

Alonzo has recently completed the National Career Development Association (NCDA), Facilitating Career Development Training and has earned recognition as a Global Career Development Facilitator (GCFD) from the Center of Credentialing and Education, Inc.

Alonzo will be overseeing the new career soaring program. It is the program's mission to increase the number of successful Native American employees within the Tribal organizations.

The career development process is an independent journey that involves developing and refining your goals. This journey unfolds throughout life as you gain skills, knowledge, and experiences. Although career development is not a linear process, it starts with recognizing a need for change, it involves learning about yourself, exploring your interests, narrowing your options, and finding a fitting occupation.

We are here to support and encourage your career journey efforts. We want you to find your inspiration, dream big for yourself, follow those dreams and grow with the organization.

Human Resources Training department receives professional certification

LOUANNA BRUNER

Human Resources Director

The Human Resources Training department consists of Steve Urbani, manager, and SCIT Members: Crystal Davidson, trainer, and Betsey Alonzo, tribal development coordinator. Our training department continually strives for improvement.

Last month they all received professional certifications.

Steve Urbani became the training manager in May 2022 and received certification in "Instructional Design." This certification will empower Steve to impact the organization by designing learning experiences that give participants the knowledge and skills needed to perform their jobs well.

Crystal Davidson started in HR as an intern while pursuing a master's degree in human resources. Crystal's been a full-time training instructor for more than a year and earned her "Training & Facilitation Certificate" from the Association for Talent Development. Her certification covers the entire end-to-end training cycle; including planning and preparing a training event, managing the learning environment and engaging participants in the classroom. Crystal conducts employee orientation and several leadership trainings.

Betsey Alonzo, tribal development coordinator, just earned two certifications: "Global Career Development Facilitator" and "Facilitating Career Development" from the National Career Development Association. Betsey has created a career planning process for any Tribal Member who is ready for a new challenge.

Congratulations to our entire Training department!

Behavioral Health Victim Services provide assistance for those affected by violence, abuse

CHRISTINA OSAWABINE

Case Manager

Domestic violence, sexual assault, trafficking and stalking can affect anyone regardless of race, culture, sex and/or age. Behavioral Health Victim Services provide assistance for anyone who has been affected by violence or abuse in an intimate partner relationship.

Personal support services are offered because, for many people, finding the right resources and services they need can be complex and confusing. Our case managers and support staff can assist with connecting individuals with the appropriate community resources to meet changing and emergent needs.

Safety planning/crisis intervention is offered to assist individuals in preparing to leave abusive situations. The knowledge shared in how to safely exit an unhealthy relationship is essential to victims who are unsure how to prepare or how to protect themselves, their belongings, and/or their children.

Education and outreach is available to provide education about domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking to providers and community groups. Behavioral Health Victim Services coordinate multiple events throughout the year, including a color walk, monthly educational groups, and events and activities for awareness months.

Christina Osawabine

Aanii. My name is Christina Osawabine and I am the sexual assault case manager. It is my hope to walk along clients and help in the process of healing and connecting community members to resources within the Tribe and outside community resources.

I am a recent graduate of Central Michigan University, with a Bachelor of Science in psychology and minors in public health and substance abuse education: prevention, intervention and treatment. I am a mother of five, and a grandmother to two beautiful and wonderful beings of light; who bring me great joy seeing their beautiful spirits grow.

As a sexual assault case manager, there is an array of services we offer to victims/survivor of sexual assault. Assist victims and clients with connecting with appropriate community resources to meet your changing needs.

Sexual Assault Services- McLaren Hospital has SANE trained nurses available to perform medical examinations on victims to assist with evidence collection. We also work with RISE Advocacy to have an advocate on call 24/7.

Teri Anglin

Boozhu! My name is Teri Anglin. I'm a member of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe. I have worked for the Tribe for almost six years. Most of them have been in Behavioral Health.

I started at the Residential Treatment Center then went to the Tribal Court and worked in Healing to Wellness. Now, I'm back at Behavioral Health in the Victim Services Department as a victims advocate.

I grew up in Clare, Mich. and moved to Mount Pleasant three years ago to be closer to my community. I'm pursuing my bachelor's degree in social work at Central Michigan University. That way, I can better help my community. I'm here to support my community members when they need it. Miigwetch for taking the time to read this!

Felicia Otto

My name is Felicia Otto. I am a member of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe. I was born and raised here but have lived in Albuquerque for many of my adult years. I am a proud mother of four children and a Nokimis to a beautiful baby boy.

All of my past and current jobs include serving my indigenous community. I have a master's degree in health administration from the University of New Mexico.

I love to practice and teach yoga. I currently work as a domestic violence case manager for Behavioral Health Programs. I strive to bring love, compassion, strength, my mama-bear attitude, and health/wellness to the position I hold as I serve my community.

Inter-Tribal Council of Michigan receives funding to improve health and prevent chronic disease among Michigan Native Americans

INTER-TRIBAL COUNCIL OF MICHIGAN

SAULT SAINTE MARIE, Mich. (Sept. 21, 2023) – Inter-Tribal Council of Michigan received $1,021,899 from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) for the first year in the five-year Racial and Ethnic Approaches to Community Health (REACH) program.

The REACH program will support the Bay Mills Indian Community, Hannahville Indian Community, Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi, Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indians, Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe, and Sault Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians in their efforts to improve long term health outcomes of their community members by preventing chronic diseases and reducing other health and commercial tobacco use disparities in their respective communities tribal communities.

Chronic diseases such as cardiovascular disease, overweight, and obesity and health behaviors associated with commercial tobacco use bare a heavy burden on Michigan’s American Indian populations.

Overweight, obesity, and smoking commercial tobacco are proven to increase the risk for health conditions, such as high blood pressure, diabetes, coronary heart disease, stroke, and cancer.

Data from the respondents of the Michigan American Indian Adult Health Survey found that tribal adults have higher rates of obesity (48.6 percent) than the general population of Michigan (35.2 percent). Obesity, poor diet, physical inactivity, and high blood pressure are a few known risk factors associated with the development of diabetes.

The AIAHS data showed that (37-41 percent) of tribal adults did not participate in any leisure time physical activity. Almost one-third (28-31 percent) of Michigan tribal adults had been diagnosed with diabetes, while only 11 percent of Michigan adults had been diagnosed with diabetes.

In Michigan, the most significant health disparities among American Indians and Alaska Natives are related to commercial tobacco use. Native health resources, including commercial tobacco prevention and cessation programs, are severely underfunded. AI/ANs have a 90 percent increased risk of being diagnosed with lung cancer and a 40 percent increased risk of dying from lung cancer compared to white Michiganders.

In 2022, 37.3 percent of the respondents to the Michigan American Indian Adult Health Survey reported being told they have high blood pressure, which is higher than the 2021 Michigan Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System where 35.3 percent of all respondents reported being told they had high blood pressures.

As identified by the Office of Minority Health, AI/AN adults are 50 percent more likely to be obese than non-Hispanic whites.

“CDC is excited to announce this new REACH funding to 41 communities among 27 states and the District of Columbia,” said Terry O’Toole, Ph.D., MDIV, program development and evaluation branch chief in CDC’s Division of Nutrition, Physical Activity and Obesity. “With this funding, organizations will plan and carry out local, culturally-appropriate programs to address a wide range of health issues among racial and ethnic minority groups where health gaps remain. REACH intends to improve health where people live, learn, work, and play.”

As one of 41 REACH recipients across the U.S., Inter-Tribal Council of Michigan will implement proven public health strategies for:

- Healthy food choices and easier access everywhere—promoting food service and nutrition guidelines, expanding fruit and vegetable voucher incentive and/or produce prescription programs.
- Safe and accessible physical activity—connecting pedestrian, bicycle, or transit transportation networks to everyday destinations.
- Tobacco prevention and control policies—helping prevent young people from using commercial tobacco products, helping people quit using commercial tobacco products, and eliminating exposure to second-hand smoke.
- COVID-19, flu, and other routine vaccines—increasing awareness, confidence, demand, and access to routinely recommended adult vaccines, for racial and ethnic groups experiencing disparities in immunization, including uninsured adults.

Louie
Louie is a 2-year-old male Pit Bull mix. He has been with HATS since January and is a parvovirus survivor! After a full recovery, he is still waiting on his forever home. He would do great in any type of home setting. He loves going on walks with volunteers and is an absolute sweetheart who is so deserving of a good home.

Orlando
Orlando is a 6-year-old male Domestic Shorthair mix. Orlando is a chunky guy who loves a good head scratch. Orlando believes the phrase “sharing is caring” does not apply to him, so he would like to be treated like a king in his castle. If you’re looking for your own personal panther at home, Orlando is the one for you.

“Color Me Purple” run/walk raises awareness for Domestic Violence

MATTHEW WRIGHT

Staff Writer

The “Color Me Purple” run/walk was held on Saturday, Oct. 7. The event began at noon on the grounds of the former Waabooz Run Golf Course.

Open to all ages and fitness levels, the free event was held in an effort to raise awareness for domestic violence.

Participants were given white Domestic Violence Awareness Month themed shirts.

Purple and teal colored powder was thrown on participants by volunteers, located at stations throughout the course. The once white shirts were quite colorful by the time participants crossed the balloon-decorated finish line.

DJ Lupe provided music during the event, with snacks and hydration provided by Peer 360 Recovery Alliance

Tribal departments involved in the collaboration included Behavioral Health, Behavioral Health Victim Services and Saginaw Chippewa Tribal College.
